Company Profile

Since 1946, Bonino has been devoted to serving agriculture and the management of green spaces. In over 60 years of activity, the company has become increasingly specialized in the manufacture of machines for agriculture and zootechnics.

The constant and progressive growth of Bonino Macchine Agricole is based on a solid family tradition, focusing on developments in the farming sector, while closely following new and emerging requirements.

winning strategy.

Even today, we continue to successfully pursue our goals of progressive consolidation of the areas in which we operate, and expansion into new markets. A major contribution to the company's stability and growth results from constant and dedicated commitment both in terms of expertise, and of economic investment in technological development, automation and computerization.

This enables us to continually develop innovative solutions which meet the goal of providing the end user with simple, effective agricultural machinery of great reliability and durability, using the very best materials available and the most advanced manufacturing solutions and techniques

QUALITY AGRICULTURAL MACHINERY:

- From its origins, the company Bonino has set itself two minimum targets for all of its agricultural machines: to adopt the latest technology, and to be indestructible.
- Advanced agricultural machinery: Thanks to our specialization, continuous research and monitoring of the sector, our machines implement the best technology available in order to best meet your requirements.
- Indestructible agricultural machinery: Experience and constant sector-specific research, attention to customer requests and feedback, solidity and reliability of every detail, cutting edge technology, over scaling of all parts subjected to great strain all contribute towards drastically reducing down time.

SERVICE

A top quality service is the natural finishing of a top quality product: we know very well how costly machinery down time can be, so when one of our machines needs to be serviced we commit to always being fully stocked with any parts that may be needed. For most shipments we deliver with express courier within 24 working hours of the order in Europe and a few days in the rest of the world.
